

Based in Basingstoke town centre,

Basingstoke Counselling Service

- has provided a counselling service since 1985, largely sustained by donations from our clients
- is an Organisational Member of BACP, bound by its Ethical Framework for Good Practice in Counselling and Psychotherapy and subject to the Professional Conduct Procedure.
- is a registered charity (no. 900559)

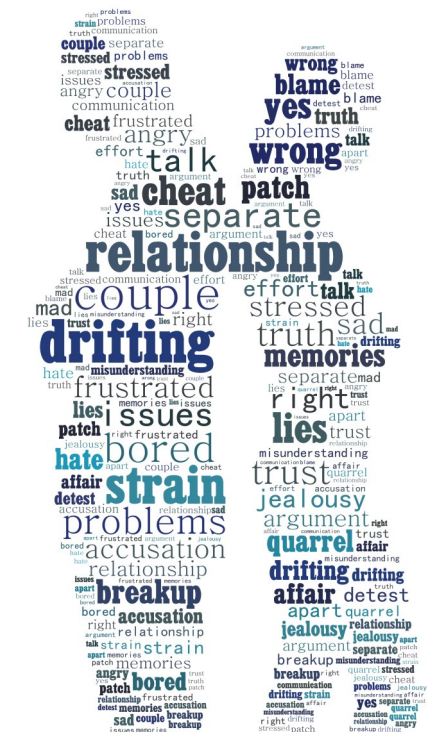

Getting in touch.....

We're only a phone call or an email away, please telephone us on 01256 843125 or email us at info@basingstokecounselling.org.uk

We're always happy to help.

Counselling and support for all relationships

All sorts of people experience difficulties in their relationships.

Young or old, straight or gay, currently single or in a relationship?

We can help you individually, as a couple or both.

We're here to help you understand what may be affecting your relationship, so you can decide if you want to make changes.

Retirement, redundancy, personal loss, infertility, parenting, children and step-children, sexual difficulties and communication issues ...

these are just some of the challenges that can affect relationships for better or worse.

If you want to talk to someone about your relationship, then we're here to help you.