

Statement of Values

BCS opposes discrimination based on prejudice, whether or not barred by legislation, and seeks to ensure that equality of opportunity and recognition of the value of diversity are reflected in all its activities.

BCS aims to offer counselling to everyone assessed as able to make use of it. People will not be excluded on grounds of gender, marital status, physical ability, race, ethnicity, religion or sexual orientation